Call to Worship: 1 Peter 2:9-10

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Prayer of Confession: (Based on Daniel 9:4-19)

Mike Stephan

Leader: O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps his covenant of love with all who love him and obey his commands, we have sinned and done wrong. We have been wicked and have rebelled; we have turned away from your commands and laws. We have not listened to your word spoken to us through the prophets and apostles, for we have not trusted you, nor served you. Lord, you are righteous, but we are covered with shame because we have sinned against you. Therefore you are right and just to give us what our sins deserve—the curses and judgments of your condemnation and wrath.

People: Now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand; who gave your only Son as an atoning sacrifice for sin; and who made for yourself a name that endures to this day, in keeping with all your righteous acts, turn away your anger and wrath from us. Forgive us and cleanse us from our sin. For your sake, O Lord, look with favor on us who bear your name. We do not make this request because we are righteous, but because of your great mercy—because we come in the Name of Christ Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

Private Confession and Thanksgiving

Good News: Romans 5:6-10

Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid. The Lord, the Lord, is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life.
